THE GREAT EAST PRESIDENT'S GREETINGS

BRO. KATLEHO MOLOI

To the East Conference WMS President, Mama Tselane Moloi; our East Conference YPD Director, Mother Zodwa Molete; the East Conference YPD Presidential Council—our very own Powerpuff Girls; officers serving in the East Executive; Episcopal Officers under the leadership of President R. Mabuya; and the Area Presidents and Directors who poured their hearts into making this day possible. To the vibrant, beautiful young members of the East Annual Conference YPD gathered here, our protective mothers, and our esteemed guests:

I pass my warmest greetings to you in the wonderful name of the Son who was born out of nothing, who lived, died, and rose again. A dula letsohong lele tona la Ntate, mme otlala kgutla teng ho ahlola ba phelang leba shwelleng. Indeed, we serve a MEGA God!

Myself and the Director sat down to discuss the objective of this seminar, and our spirits met at a place of complete understanding. We looked at the backgrounds and the different homesteads you come from, and we realized that every single person stepping through these doors—from our youngest little ones to our young adults, and the mothers who stand by us—is carrying a story.

We know that for many of you, coming here meant leaving behind heavy environments. Some of you are walking into this space with broken hearts. Some of you are grieving destroyed relationships. Some are coming from abusive homes, or evil environments that you have to navigate daily just to survive. Yes, this weekend is a beautiful three-day getaway. It is wonderful to see your favorite people, to laugh, and to sing. But the Director and I refused to let this just be a holiday. We refused to let this be another event that comes and goes, leaving you the same way you came. We understood that we had to create a sacred space. A sanctuary where you can finally drop the mask, take off the heavy armor you wear out there in the world, and present yourselves at the altar of righteousness. This weekend is about one thing: Faith. It is about how we bring our raw, honest worship to the Almighty. This is your opportunity to forget about those things that hinder you. If you came here feeling broken, this is your altar. If you came here feeling lost, this is your anchor.

May this weekend be filled with God, and God alone.

My prayer for you is that the Almighty renders to you exactly what you earnestly cry for in the quietness of your prayers every night. May God meet you precisely at your point of need. Let every single hymn we sing shake your soul. Let every prayer lift the weight off your shoulders. May the scriptures dwell on your mouth, and may you meditate on them until they become your shield.

This is the hope we hold onto. This is our anchor. We know without a shadow of a doubt that God is going to rise through us this weekend. We know He will Make East Great Again. For indeed, we serve a MEGA GOD!

My name is Katleho Gift Moloi, the 15th Elected President of this Great MEGA Conference, and I welcome you to the East Conference Seminar '26. We love you, we see you, and we pray you leave here deeply, unshakably anchored in Christ.

Thank you and God bless you.

THE GREAT EAST DIRECTOR'S GREETINGS

MOT. ZODWA MOLETE

Grace and peace to you all in the precious name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

It is with great joy and gratitude to God that I welcome you all to the Young People and Children Division Seminar held under the powerful theme: "Anchored" based on Hebrews 6:19-20:

"We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure..."

In these challenging times where many young people are faced with confusion, peer pressure, fear, temptation, and spiritual distractions, God is calling us to remain firmly anchored in Him. An anchor keeps a ship steady during storms, and in the same way, Christ keeps us stable through the storms of life.

Throughout the Bible, we see men and women who remained anchored in God despite difficult circumstances. Daniel remained faithful to God even in the lions' den (Daniel 6:10). Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego stood firmly for God in the fiery furnace because they trusted Him completely (Daniel 3:16-18). Joseph remained faithful even through betrayal and imprisonment, and God elevated him in due season (Genesis 39:2-3). Peter reminds us in 1 Peter 5:7 to "Cast all your anxiety on Him because He cares for you."

As young people and children of God, we are called to let go of everything that separates us from Him — ungodly habits, sinful desires, negative influences, unforgiveness, pride, and worldly distractions. God desires a generation that is fully surrendered to Him, walking in holiness, obedience, and truth.

Proverbs 3:5-6 encourages us:

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight."

When we trust God fully, He strengthens us, guides us, and gives us victory over every challenge we face. Isaiah 40:31 reminds us that:

"Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength."

It is my prayer that during this seminar, every participant will experience spiritual renewal, deeper faith, and a stronger relationship with God. May we leave this gathering more determined to stand for Christ, to live according to His Word, and to remain forever anchored in His unfailing love.

May the Lord bless each speaker, leader, parent, child, and young person attending this seminar. May His presence move powerfully among us and transform lives for His glory.

Yours in Christ,
Great East Conference YPD Director
Mot. Zodwa Molete
